I. NAME AND LOCATION (Amended October 21, 2008)
The name of this Association shall be Twin Rivers United Educators/CTA/NEA in Sacramento and Placer Counties, hereafter referred to as “TRUE.”

II. PURPOSES AND GOALS (Amended October 21, 2008)
The primary purposes of TRUE shall be:

A. To represent its members and all persons in its bargaining unit in their professional and employment relations with their employer, and to seek to be the exclusive representative of appropriate units of school employees in all matters relating to employment conditions and employer-employee relations including, but not limited to, wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment;

B. To unite all members within TRUE’s jurisdiction, regardless of their age, race, national origin, socio-economic status, job classification, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or religion;

C. To provide a means of representation for its ethnic-minority members;

D. To form a representative body capable of developing group opinion on professional matters to speak with authority for members;

E. To provide an opportunity for continuous study and action on problems of the profession;

F. To promote professional attitudes and ethical conduct among members;

G. To encourage cooperation and communication between the profession and the community;

H. To foster good fellowship, unity, and solidarity among members; and

I. To promote political and legislative activities related to public education service and benefits.

J. To promote cooperation and communication between education support professionals and certificated educators. (Added by Amendment April 30, 2015)

III. AFFILIATION WITH THE CTA/NEA (Amended October 21, 2008 & April 30, 2015)
A. TRUE shall be a chartered chapter of the California Teachers Association (CTA).

B. TRUE shall be an affiliated local of the National Education Association (NEA).

A. Active membership shall be open to any certificated Twin Rivers Unified School District employee who is engaged in, or who is on leave of absence for not more than six months from, professional educational work and whose primary assignment is such as not to hold supervisory responsibility over other certificated employees to such an extent as not to be represented in the negotiations process.

B. Membership may be granted upon initiation of payroll deduction or upon payment of annual TRUE/CTA/NEA dues appropriate to the class of membership. The membership year shall be that period of time from September 1 of any given calendar year through August 31 of the following calendar year, inclusive. Members hired prior to September 1 of any calendar year shall begin their membership on their first day of duty.

C. Membership in a given class or category shall be continuous after initial enrollment until delinquent or until a change in status shall make the member ineligible for that class or category. If, by November 30 of any calendar year, a member has not either paid the established annual membership dues for the current membership year or made satisfactory arrangements for payment, then that person’s membership shall be considered delinquent and the person dropped from the rolls. Provisions for installment payments or payroll deductions of members’ obligations to TRUE may be provided for by the Executive Board.

D. An individual who is serving as a negotiator for a public school employer shall not be eligible for membership in the Association.

E. Active members shall adhere to The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession.

F. Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, persons who are non-members shall have no rights or privileges within this Association.

A. All, and only, active members shall have the power and enjoy the rights and privileges to:

1. Vote in all elections, hold elective offices or appointive positions, receive special services, obtain representation or legal assistance in the protection of employment and civil rights, and receive reports and publications of TRUE.

2. Decide and establish the fundamental laws of TRUE, the rules and regulations which implement these laws, and make other decisions that advance the goals of TRUE.

3. Attend any meetings of the Executive Board, Site Representative Council, or other official TRUE meeting as nonvoting observers, unless the privacy rights of others would be violated.

B. The rights to and privileges of membership shall not be abridged in any way because of age, race, national origin, socio-economic status, marital status, job classification, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or religion.

C. No member of the Association may be disciplined without a due process hearing by the Executive Board. Due process includes the right to select representation, to present evidence on his/her behalf, to confront and cross-examine his/her accuser and any other witnesses against him/her, and to examine and refute all evidence considered by the hearing panel, whether or not such evidence is presented at a hearing. The member has the right to appeal the decision of the hearing panel to the governing body.

D. The membership year shall be that period of time from September 1 of any given calendar year through August 31 of the following calendar year, inclusive.

A. The basic annual dues level for active members shall be sufficient to cover the operating expenses of TRUE, the dues of CTA, and the dues of NEA. TRUE dues shall be indexed to meet minimum levels necessary to qualify for matching fund programs of CTA and/or NEA.

B. Membership dues shall be adopted at the same time as the budget is adopted for the following fiscal year on or after March 1.

C. Special assessments may be established by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Site Representative Council.

D. The fiscal year shall be from September 1 through August 31.
A. TRUE shall maintain a general fund and such special funds as shall be established by the Executive Board. The general fund shall consist of all monies received from dues, assessments, and other sources.
B. The Executive Board shall recommend the budget for the following fiscal year at a regular meeting on or after March 1, with adoption by Site Rep Council by May 30.
C. The stipend of constitutional officers and any employees shall be specified in the proposed annual budget. The Site Representative Council may change the stipend of any constitutional officer or at-will employee by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Site Representative Council.

VIII. SITE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL (Amended October 22, 2009)
A. The policy-making body of TRUE shall be the Site Representative Council. The Site Representative Council shall establish TRUE policies and objectives. The Site Representative Council derives its powers from, and shall be responsible to, the active membership.
B. The Site Representative Council shall be composed of the following active members:
   1. Executive Board;
   2. TRUE Site Representatives or their elected alternate, elected on the basis of one-person one-vote;
   3. Any of the following officers as ex-officio, non-voting members: TRUE committee chairpersons, CTA State Council Representatives, or members holding a CTA/NEA office.
C. Excepting matters requiring confidentiality such as member discipline, grievances, issues involving employees of TRUE, the Site Representative Council may, but is not limited to, provide advice and consent upon any of the following issues:
   1. Any matter pertaining to the general membership.
   2. The adopted dues and annual budget.
   3. Establishing or discontinuing association committees.
   4. Appointments to the bargaining team or other constitutional committees.
D. The Site Representative Council shall meet at least bimonthly during each school year; the date, place and time of the meetings shall be published in an annual calendar.
E. Special meetings of the Site Representative Council may be called by the President, the Executive Board, a quorum of the Site Representative Council, or by the petition of twenty percent (20%) of the membership. Special meetings of the Site Representative Council shall be called for a specific purpose, and no business other than that for which the meeting is called may be transacted.
F. A quorum of the Site Representative Council shall consist of forty percent (40%) of the members of the Site Representative Council.
G. Each TRUE Site Representative, or elected alternate, shall have one vote. Each elected alternate, acting in place of a TRUE Site Representative will be entitled to vote at the Site Representative Council. No proxy votes shall be allowed.
H. Decisions of the Site Representative Council, unless otherwise specified, require a majority vote of the TRUE Site Representatives present and voting. The Site Representative Council shall encourage the active participation of a proportionate number of ethnic-minority representatives according to the ethnic-minority membership of TRUE.

A. TRUE Site Representatives, and at least one alternate per represented unit, shall be elected by and from the active membership, by September 1 of each school year. Such election shall be by open nominations and by secret ballot. Election results must be reported to the TRUE office immediately following the ballot count.

B. Each representative unit/school site shall be entitled to one (1) Site Representative for every twenty (20) active TRUE members or major fraction thereof. Active members who are not represented through an individual school group shall be counted as a special faculty group entitled to the same representation on the Representative Council as individual school faculty groups.

C. Vacancies shall be filled by a special election to fill the unexpired terms.

D. The term of a TRUE Site Representative is one (1) year. A TRUE Site Representative may be elected without limit on the number of terms. A term commences on the first day of September and terminates on the last day of August.

E. Site Representatives shall: (\textit{Added by amendment April 30, 2015})
\begin{enumerate}
  \item Conduct constant and ongoing liaison between the Representative Council and the Active members of the faculty/site unit;
  \item Serve as the official channel through which written communications and publications can be easily and quickly transmitted between the Association and the members;
  \item Represent the views and input of the Active membership in votes taken in the Representative Council, conducting frequent and regular polls of such membership for this purpose; and \item Perform such additional duties as prescribed by the Executive Board.
\end{enumerate}

F. A Site Representative shall not conduct an election in which he/she is a candidate. (\textit{Added by Amendment April 30, 2015})
